Thursday, March 8, 1877. Enormous Republican Frauds in Cali fornia, The chairman of the finance committee of the board of supervisors of San Francisco, on Monday last, made a report to the board of the investigation by the committee into alleged frauds at the recent general elec- of an eminent gambler of Wall street-my tion in that city. The inquiry involved a friend, Mr. J. Gould. As our party is the through canvass of votes cast on certificates. of registration, numbering 17,370. The result is summarized as follows: Not en" titled to vote on account of non residence, under age, etc., names for which there are those to whom I am chiefly indebted for no affidavits for certificates, 70; double yoters 75; persons voting on concealed names, 379; names on poll-lists not ap- zens of the country, against an electoral pearing on ward registers, 359; total, majority of 21 votes, and against a decided 3, 605. The report claims that the above proportion would hold good had the inquiry been carried into the remainder of But I have not yet consulted with Chanthe city, and argues that there must have been a total fraudulent vote of 8,105. The state was counted for Hayes by a majority of 2,767-though there is no doubt that by at honest vote it was for Tilden. It was carried for Hayes by the grossest frauds. The investment of half a million on the Pacific slope after the October elections produced a rich harvest of ballot-box-stuffing, repeating, and every form of election frauds. It was felt that the emergency was a desperate one and desperate means were taken to meet it. At the next session of congress the iniquity should be throughly investigated.

Returning Board Hayes likens his de parture from Columbus to Abraham Lincoln's departure from Springfield, sixteen years ago. Both Lincoln and Hayes received a minority of the popular vote, but here the resemblance ends. Lincoln with a majority of the electoral vote, was the lawfully elected president, and he left Cold, Asthma, raising of Blood or any af-Springfield to resume the powers and the responsibilities which were his by right. Hayes, with at least twelve votes less than DR. HOUSEMAN'S GERMAN COUGH a majority, is not the honestly elected president of the United States. He leaves Davis (now deceased) and you will be sure Columbus to occupy an office which the bade his neighbors farewell with a clear conscience and an unsulfied reputation, and his expressions of reliance upon divine solemn words which Lincoln used. His agents. reliance, however, is upon fraud and dishonesty, and the prayer of Lincoln comes like a profanation from his lips.

Ferry summed up the result of Ed munds's sharp practice and Joe Bradley's casting vote, as follows:

Wherefore he did solemnly announce that Rutherford B. Hayes, "having reviewed a majority of all the electoral votes, General Agents, 169 and 171 Broadway, New York. is duly elected president of the United States." FELLOW CITIZENS:-The first duty of a man who has been elevated to a high foundest sense of gratitude to Mr. J. Madison Wells, and his three associates, who, by such a rare exercise of ingenuity, audicity, and fidelity, were enabled to turn a majority of 8,000 against me in Louisiana. Whit early you remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. Joseph T. Innan Station D, Bible House, Mew York City.

Innan Station D, Bible House, Mew York City. majority of 8,000 against me in Louisiana, into a majority of 4,000 in my favor. The feat is altogether unparalleled in political CHAS. KAESTNER & CO., history, and shall receive, as it deserves, a

I must also remember the services of the illustrious High Low Commission, which, sworn to ascertain what electors were duly appointed in each State, stuck so mantuly together in the noble resolve that no evidence should be taken to prove that anybody was elected anywhere except the persons who cast their votes for me. Where the merit was so impartially distributed, it might be invidious to single out particular individuals of honorable mention; but I cannot refrain from extolling the names of O. P. Morton (Only for Party Morton,) who two years ago, introduced a bill authorizing either House of Congress to reject the electoral vote of a State, but as a commissioner steadily insisted that neither House could go behind the returns, where they were in my favor; also G. F. Edmunds (Great Fraud Edmunds,) who two years ago denounced the ever blessed Returning Board of Louis iana as "a contrivance of thieves," and not fit to be regarded as seating a Senatur, but signed. All persons indebted to said estate are refit to be regarded as seating a Senatur, but munds,) who two years ago denounced the who asserts that it is to be sacredly regarded in scating a President; and finally, the immortal Jack Bunsby, I mean Joe Bradley, who, chosen as umpire in a board equally divided, always voted on my side. His fidelity can never be forgotten.

Let me, besides, compliment the perspicacity and consistency of the Senate, which having twice voted for Morton's bill, allowing either House to throw out an allowing either House to throw out an electoral vote, at length discovered, when JAS. it became necessary to elect me, that it was highly improper and unconstitutional for either House even to think of trampling upon the rights of a State, especially when it was represented by a board of knaves and perjurers. It is no easy matter for a grave body of Senators to overcome their often-expressed convictions, but in my case it was done with the utmost facility and without hesitation. As some of these Senators are soon to retire from their office they may count upon me, as they have already counted for me.

Can I forget an enlightened press, this moment of high felicitation? Can 1 forget the N.Y. Times which for six months poured out a steady stream of scorching abuse of my opponent, whom only a little while before it had praised as an honest and honorable man? Can I forget the eminent field marshal, who invented the dodge about $2,000,000,000 of southern claims which had so much effect in the canvass? Can I forget the Evening Post Best & Most Perfect Soap Made of New York, which for fifty years having steadily battled for certain principles, which my opponent represents better than any other man in the Union, and which I case of desertion the more magnanimous is that the three editors of that journal, who alone had given it any influence, who alone had given it any influence, were the intimate and life long personal friends of my ponent. It is true, its services were feeole, but so conspicuous a disregard for my sake, of public and private decency, ought to be acknowledged by a small share of official patronage. Great credit is also due to the New York Tribune, which after contending in 1872 that the country was only to be saved by the overthrow of the Republican party, became the champion of independent journalism. but is now bappily converted to a high sense of public virtue and party fidelity by the influence party of moral ideas and immoral practices it can have no fitter organ than this journal which towers to the skies, but sells iquor in the basement. Having thus returned my thanks to my place by one vote, against a general popular majority of 262,000, against a majority of one million among the white citimajority in the two stolen states that were counted for me, it might be expected of me to announce my policy for the future. dler, Morton or Wells, and do not desire to be premature. As, however, while I was in congress, I voted for every bill to inflate the currency, for every subsidy to the gigantic railroad corporations, for nearly every job, and for all Thad Stevens's extremest measures of southern oppression, you may infer that I am not going to forget my old friends, whatever I or any body else may say to the contrary RETURNING BOARD HAYES.

MATCHES:

PENNSYLVANIA

THERE ARE MANY ACCIDENTY AND FIRES which occur from the use of the ordinary sulphur and parlor matches. Either kind of these matches ignite readily upon any surface. To prevent fire or accidents, which are liable to occur from their careless use EPHRAIM SMITH, 919 St. ohn St., Philadelphia, invented a match known as

'Pennsylvania Safety Match," which needs only one trial for the public to know its importance. Its peculiarity is that it cannot be ignited except on the special preparation furnished with each box. They do not emit any disagreeable odor or make any startling, crackling sound on being ignited. They contain neither surphur nor phosphorus, neither are they poisonous. Another important point is that they are perfectly safe in important point is that they are perfectly safe in the hands of children; and the rats and mice carrying them off can do no damage. Mr. Smith also manufacturers a special rubber to be placed near match safes, thereby making these matches as convenient as those which ignite on any surface. With these improvements they are very desirable for private dwellings fand business houses in whith combustible matter is kept. In case one should be dropped on the floor there would be no danger of its burning the carpet or igniting by any accidental means. Grocers have them for sale. Also manufacturer of Parlor and Sulphur matches.

Made at the oldest Anvil manufactory in this country. All English Anvils, after a time, become hollowing on the face by continued hammering i use, on account of the fibrous nature of the wrough on—causing it to "settle," under the steel.
But the body of the Sagle Anvil being of cry tallized iron, such settling cannot occur; and the steel face therefore remains perfectly true. Also, it has the great advantage, that being of a more solid material, and, consequently, with less re-bound, the piece forged receives the FULL effect of the hammer, instead of a part of it being wasted y the rebound, as with a wrought iron Anvil by the rebound, as with a wrought iron Anvil.

More work can therefore be done on this Anvil with a hammer one-fifth lighter than required for a wrought iron Anvil which is more elastic.

The working surface is in one piece of JESSOP'S.

BEST TOOL CAST STEEL, accurately ground, hard ened and given the proper temper for the heaviest work. The horn is of tough untempered steel.

The cast steel surface is warranted to be thoroughly welded and not to come off. PRICE LIST, OCTOBER 1st, 1876. Anvils weighing 100 lbs, to 800 lbs. 9 cts per lb. Smaller Anvils, ("Minims.") from $2.75 to $8 each.
